

What is “Poetic Theology”?

Delving into that mysterious area where God’s truth collides with life

It’s where rhythms and rhyme,
Seek to explain and define,
The matters of the heart and mind,
To all who have become emotionally blind.

It describes what happens in a specific moment of time,
When God’s truth intersects with one’s heart and mind,
Allowing God’s contagious beauty to raise the imaginations of all mankind,
One at a time!

We had become a sinful world that Satan had maligned,
A perilous place to which Jesus the Christ needed to be assigned.
To come and expose God’s hidden splendor by piercing the sinful human blind,
To reveal His irresistible beauty that had all but been left behind.

Jesus converts people filled with rage to people now wanting to be kind,
Revenge-filled people transformed to warm-hearted people who are love inclined,
Jesus is restoring a sin-sick world by getting the hearts of men to God realigned,
Elevating the thinking and feeling of individuals by getting their views of life redefined.

Beginning with single individuals, one-by-one, getting their life redefined,
To save a precious individual and eventually, all mankind!

LaVon